

On June 29, 2017 the Business Training Center of BelCCI hold the Second Belarusian Investment Forum "Open Windows", which will be hosted by the Belarusian Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

The event is held for the purpose to create the universal platform for the investment projects presentation by all business categories representatives: small, middle and large. The expected result of the event is a real practical dialogue between an investor and an investment project applicant. The forum represents an open large-scale platform where the companies will be able to offer the ideas to investors in real time directly without intermediaries. The forum "Open Windows" is combination of ideas, experience exchange, merge of mutually advantageous interests, B2B business meetings and opportunity to conclude contracts.

Uniqueness of the event is that the companies and investors will be able to obtain the exhaustive actual information on a complete cycle of forming of an investment portfolio taking into account the legal aspects of an investment offer and investment risks insurance for investors and for the companies. During the Forum banks will be able to provide the investment credit proposals to prospective clients. Investment offers of the companies will be offered in the format of a new marketing formula which allows to have an impression about the investment project within several minutes and already at this stage will help the investor to decide whether it is necessary to examine the whole project.

It is expected the wide broadcasting of the event in mass media and Internet resources.

You are kindly asked to render assistance in the invitation of investors, representatives of business community for holding business meetings in B2B format, business cooperation exchange, being co-organizers of the Forum on the terms of providing financial support in holding this event for their activities advertising and use of the effective platform for product promotion.
